County School Board Meets.

The Bourbon County School Board met Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the office of School Superintendent Miss Mabel Robbins and transacted considerable routine business.

J. F. Purdy, J. N. Mason and Grant Galloway, members of the board, were appointed to select a location for the new school building on the Ford's pike and to investigate the probable cost of construction.

J. F. Purdy and R. L. Tarr were appointed a committee to inquire into the probable cost of construction for the new building in the Tarr school district.

The colored school at Houston was consolidated with that at Amertsville, the school at Glentown with that at Riddle's Mills and the school at Shipp-town with that at Millersburg. Mr. Purdy was appointed a committee to secure a location for the colored school at Millersburg.

DEATHS.

—Mr. Samuel A. Peddicord, aged 40 years, died Friday night at 11 o'clock at the Stag Hotel, after an illness of several days. The body was moved Saturday morning to the home of his sister, Mrs. C. L. Blackerby, on Houston avenue.

Peddicord, Samuel Peddicord and John Henry Peddicord, and four brothers, Mr. Oscar Peddicord, Mr. Charles Peddicord, former assessor of Bourbon; Mr. John Peddicord, of Lexington, and Mr. William Peddicord of California.

The funeral took place from the residence of C. L. Blackerby Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services conducted by Rev. M. T. Chandler, of the Methodist church. Interment in Paris cemetery. The pall bearers were Stamps Moore, W. R. Hukill, George Gregory, Thomas Butler, M. J. Murphy and Charles Whaley.

Bodies Recovered.

So badly decomposed and bloated were some of the bodies taken from the Palos, Ala., mine Sunday that it was impossible to put them in the coffins which had been ordered. More bodies were found in the afternoon, huddled together, with coats about their faces. The work of rescue will continue for several days.

The Dangerous House Fly.

With the advent of summer the house fly, with its filthy feet, will be swarming by the millions. This fly, formerly regarded only as a sort of nuisance, is now known to be a dis-seminator of disease and a dangerous enemy to mankind. Everything should be done to keep him out of the house and to banish him from the community.
Cleanliness, disinfectants and screens will do it. Few families are so poor they can not screen their houses.
Screens on windows and outside doors are an excellent investment.
"It is, inconceivable," says Dr. L.
O. Howard, Entomologist of the Department of Agriculture, "that human beings should have so long viewed this insect, the house fly, as a simple nuisance, and the public indifference has been due not only to the general ignorance of the danger, but to the lack of such knowledge and comparative apathy on the part of boards of health as well as the medical profession in general. The very name 'house fly' suggests nothing harmful, and it is proposed that if in all publications in the future this insect be known as the typhoid fly, or as the manure fly, even the average individual will without trouble absorb some idea of the objectionable qualities.

"Although the full life history and most facts concerning the house fly have been displayed in previous years in publications of the Bureau of Entomology, beginning with the early summer of 1908 an effort was made to learn certain facts connected with the seasonal abundance of the insect, with the idea of comparing at the close of the season the curve of house fly increase and decrease with the curve of typhoid increase and decrease, in the hope of emphasizing in this way the part played by the house fly in the carriage of typhoid, which is becoming more and more accepted even under city conditions. It seems certain that many otherwise inexplicable cases of typhoid, and even of epidemics of typhoid, are entirely or largely to be laid to the carriage of the germ by this fly."

Had The Longest Beard.

Valentine Tapley, owner of the longest beard in the world, died Saturday at his home, Spencerburg, Pike county, Mo. He was 80 years old.

It is said that when Lincoln was a candidate for the presidency Mr. Tapley, who was a Democrat made a vow that if Lincoln was elected he would never cut his beard. The length of his beard was 12 1/2 feet for several years. This is said to be longer than any other beard known. Mr. Tapley took great pride in his whiskers and wore them wrapped in silk and wound about his body.

Death Claims English Sovereign

Edward VII., King of Great Britain and Ireland, defender of the faith and Emperor of India, died in Buckingham Palace, his London home, at 11:45 o'clock Friday night. Pneumonia which followed bronchitis, is said to have been the cause of death. The physicians have not yet made a formal statement as to the disease. Edward's only son, George, Prince of Wales, became King at the death of his father.
His first act was to notify the Lord Mayor of London of the death of the King.

Biggest Farm in the World.

The announcement that the Republic of Mexico, is about to make some effort to curb the princely aspirations of Don Luis Terrazas, of State of Chihuahua, promises to bring into the public eye one of the most remarkable and at the same time one of the least known of the world's unusual men.
Four years ago a German prince traveled 5,000 miles to visit a "farmer," and this farmer was Don Luis, whose "farm," Mexicans are now beginning to believe, is getting too large for the public health.

In short, it is the biggest farm in the world. In area it ranks with the largest of Europe's kingdoms and empires and would make one of the big States of the Union. It measures 150 miles from North to South and 200 miles East to West, or eight million acres in all. It embraces whole ranges of mountains, entire water systems, volcanoes, mineral lands, and thousands of lakes. Over it roam 1,000,000 head of cattle, 700,000 sheep and 300, 000 horses. The "farmhouse" is the most magnificent in the world—a palace costing $1,600,000 in gold, superbly furnished, with rooms to accommodate 500 guests.

Others Will Follow.

By a vote of one hundred and nine to ninety-eight the Massachusetts house of representatives declares for the direct election of Senators. It was only a few years ago that Mr. Hoar, the veteran senator from Massachusetts, made an attack on this proposed reform, and Senator Lodge is still a senator from Massachusetts. But the old Bay State is coming around and
others will follow.

Wanted His Skeleton.

A curious law case, that of a man fighting for the ownership of his skeleton has just been completed at Stockholm. Twenty years ago Albert Vystroem signed a contract with the Royal Swedish Institute of Anatomy, making over his body after death to the institution in return for a sum of money. Since then he has come into possession of a fortune, and he was anxious to cancel his contract. The matter was brought before the courts.
Not only was the case decided against him but he was even ordered to pay damages to the institute for having extracted two teeth without its authorization, which was held to be, in point of law, a breach of contract.

What Will He Do?

Those Republicans who are hoping that Mr. Roosevelt will take up the fight against Cannon and Cannonism will perhaps be interested in a letter printed by the New York World. This letter was written by Theodore Rosevelt to James E. Watson, of Indiana in 1906 and is as follows:

"I feel that all good citizens who have the welfare of America at heart should appreciate the immense amount that has been accomplished by the present congress organized as it is and the urgent need of keeping this organization in power. Mr. Cannon, as speaker of the house, has accomplished a literally phenomenal amount of good work. It has shown at courage, good sense and patriotism such that it could be a real and serious misfortune for the country to fail to recognize.
To change the leadership and organization of the house at this time means to bring confusion upon those who have been successfully engaged in the steady working out of a great and comprehensive scheme for the betterment of our social, industrial and civic conditions. Such a change would substitute a purposeless confusion, a violent and hurtful oscillation between the positions of the extreme radical and the extreme reactionary, for the present orderly progress along the line of a carefully thought out policy."

An Expert's Opinion of Skin Dis- eases.

A prominent, national expert on skin diseases whose name you are familiar with says that in all his scientific experience he has never found so hard a disease to conquer as Eczema.
Yet he does not hesitate to recommend ZEMO as a most successful remedy for the treatment of Eczema, itching skin diseases, dandruff, pimples, blackheads and all other diseases of the skin and scalp. He says that not only does it curative qualities make it popular but also the fact that it is a clean, liquid remedy for external use. A great improvement over the old style greasy salves and lotions which are not only unpleasant to use but do not destroy the germ life that causes the disease. ZEMO draws the germs to the surface and destroys them, leaving the skin clear and healthy. Can be used freely on infants. Mr. W. T. Brooks will gladly supply those who call with a free sample bottle of ZEMO and a booklet which explains in simple language all about skin diseases and how to cure yourself at home with ZEMO.

Hearst Brings Sixteen Suits.

W. R. Hearst, of New York, began suits Friday against sixteen more newspapers and their publishers who printed the Mayor's speech at the Associated Press dinner, including the Mayor's declaration that "two State prison felonies, namely, forgery and falsification of a public document, were committed in the eagerness of the publisher and editor, Hearst, to wrong the Mayor of the city of New York."

Last week he sued the New York Times and the Brooklyn Eagle for $100,000 each and the Associated Press for $50,000. Friday he began suits against Adolph S. Ochs, publisher of the Times; Herman Ridder, publisher of the Staats Zeitung, Melville E.
Stone, general manager of the Associated Press, and Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal. The other suits begun were against the Courier-Journal, the Staats Zeitung, seven Boston papers and the Call Bulletin and Chronicle, of San Francisco. In each action $100,000 damage is asked.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—Nine carloads of fine cattle were shipped from Midway Thursday morning to the Baltimore market. The cattle were the property of Mr. Theodore Solomon, of Lexington, and who has had them for several months in order to be fed from the slop from the Greenbaum distillery, near Midway.

—Total receipts of live stock on the Chicago market last week were 54,800 cattle, 63,600 hogs and 49,000 sheep. The week's receipts compared with the previous week in round numbers decreased 4,300 cattle, 26,700 hogs and 16,200 sheep. Compared with the corresponding week last year cattle increased 9,200 hogs decreased 68,800 and sheep 14,400.

—One hundred and eight fine imported Jersey milk cows arrived at Elemerdorf Farm Friday morning from New York in charge of a number of attendants, and will be a considerable addition to the already large herd of several hundred dairy cows at Elemerdorf. The cows are of the best that could be found in the Jersey Island and England and are all high class animals having been selected and imported specially for Elemerdorf.

—Because the report of the crop condition in this state for the month of March showed a decided falling off in the acreage of wheat, Commissioner of Agriculture Rankin has decided to begin a campaign to induce the farmers of Kentucky to grow more wheat and less tobacco. He has a double purpose in this campaign, which will be one of education. He will try to get the farmers to go back to the old system of taking their wheat to the mill and having it ground for their own use, take their shorts and mill feed home and feed it to their stock and sell what is left, and not until they have first supplied their own wants. During the next year Commissioner Rankin is going to try to get every farmer in Kentucky to raise some wheat on his farm.

—The Kentucky Beef Cattle Breeders Association will hold its third annual meeting at the State University of Kentucky on May 24. The speakers will include Professor J. H. Skinner, Professor of Animal Husbandry and Dean of the College of Agriculture at Purdue University, Mr. Jonas Weil, an extensive beef cattle feeder and commission merchants of Central Kentucky, Mr. Sim Lockridge, an extensive shorthorn breeder of Indiana, and a number of Kentucky beef cattle feeders and breeders will also speak on their specialties.

The program will begin at 1:30 in the afternoon of May 24th, which is Tuesday, and will extend through the afternoon. A banquet will be held at the Phoenix Hotel that night beginning at 8 p. m. The most important lectures will be given in the afternoon and toasts will be responded to at the banquet, which will be presided over by Toastmaster C. E. Marven.

The next morning the visitors will make a trip to the famous Shorthorn farm, owned by Mr. J. B. Haggin, which is located near Lexington, where an extensive shorthorn sale will be held.

The beef cattle interests of Kentucky are booming, and judging from this, it is thought that one of the largest meetings of beef cattle breeders and feeders ever held South of the Ohio River will occur at the State University of Kentucky on May 24, 1910.

Will Promote Beauty.

Women desiring beauty get wonderful help from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It banishes pimples, skin eruptions, sores and boils. It makes the skin soft and velvety. It cures the face. Cures sore eyes, cold sores, cracked lips, chapped hands. Best for burns, scalds, fever sores, cuts, bruises and piles. 25c at Oberdorfer's.

Boyle's Reasoning.

"If you wuz to find one hundred thousand dollar bills in the street, what would you do with 'em?" asked one boy of another. "I'd keep 'em till they wuz advertised for," was the reply, "and if a poor man had lost 'em I'd give 'em back to him."—Lippincott's Magazine.

By Proxy.

"The king is going to raise some pin money by starring his court jesters in vaudeville." "He'll try to live by his wits, eh?"—Kansas City Times.

Origin of Famous Phrase.

The phrase, "Put none but Americans on guard to-night," is said to have occurred originally in one of Washington's orders of the day at about the time the battle of Trenton was fought. It was adopted by the Americans or "Know Nothing" party during its political campaign in the early '50s as a watchword, embodying as it did one of the chief principles of the party.

Faking a Birthday.

A neighbor of the Lysander John Appleton family recently gave a birthday party, at which there figured a cake covered with candles. The next week the Appletons celebrated Chauncey's birthday, and the cake was decorated with electric lights. The neighbors say it really wasn't his birthday; that his mother faked up a birthday in order to get ahead of those candles.—Atchison Globe.

True Hospitality.

A woman who possesses a charming temper and cordial manners is sure to be popular. Said a witty Boston woman: "I do like to have people behave as if they were glad to see me, whether they are or not. I think a hostess should speak in a pleased tone, even if she only says, 'My dear Mrs. So-and-so, I am perfectly delighted to see you! Do sit right down on this bent pin!'"—Harper's Bazar.

Cynthiana will have a Government building if the bill introduced in Congress by Congressman J. B. Bennett goes through. Postmaster G. M. Dick, of Cynthiana has received a letter from Congressman Bennett in which he states he has been advised that the committee will report to the full sub-committee on Public Buildings and Grounds in favor of $80,000 for a building at Cynthiana. Mr. Bennett said he stood steadfastly for $100,000, but they have been parring the bill and he has not the slightest doubt that the $80,000 building will go through.

Not Sorry for Blunder.

"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, laryngitis, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer."

Have You Been Counted?

The Census Enumerators are hard at work. In cities whose population was 500 or over in 1900, the enumeration has been completed. In cities of less population and in the country districts, the time is not up till May 15. Supervisor Bristow urges the co-operation of the newspapers, public officials and citizens generally with his corps of enumerators in the effort to obtain a complete and accurate census of this county. If, therefore, you have not seen the Census Man, please fill out and mail the following card:

Have You Been Enumerated?

If not, or if you have any doubt, fill out this coupon and mail to "L. L. Bristow, Supervisor of Census, Georgetown, Kentucky."

On April 15, 1910, I was living at address given below, but to the best of my knowledge I have not been enumerated there or anywhere else.

Statue Completed.

The scaffolding around the Henry Clay monument in the Lexington cemetery, which was built to raise the new statue to its place at the top was torn down Saturday. and Charles J. Mulligan, the sculptor, returned to his home in Chicago Sunday. While the statue is completed, it has not been officially accepted by the Henry Clay Monument Commission but they are expected to hold a meeting this week and pass on the work. The fact that Sculptor Mulligan was directed by the commission to remove the scaffolding on which the figure was raised to its lofty height from around the monument is taken to mean that the commission is satisfied with the statue as it stands and will favorably act upon its acceptance when it meets to take final action. An unknown woman, thinking herself unobserved, imprinted a kiss upon the marble lips of the statue before it was raised to its lofty pedestal.

The first number of the Danville Messenger has come to our exchange table. Have You Been Counted?

Don't wait until May 15 to send your name into Census (Supervisor Bristow, if the census enumerator has failed to include you in the census of Paris. The time for action is short and no time should be lost by those who have been overlooked by the enumerators. Every citizen should have a desire to see the census of this city increased and should make an effort to locate those who have been overlooked. Other towns want to ascertain their correct population and by co-operative methods adopted citizens are every day finding someone whom the enumerators have failed to list. If any resident of Paris should hear of a person omitted let him clip out the coupon printed in this paper, take it to that person have him fill it out and mail it to Supervisor Bristow.

Police Court.

In Police Court Saturday Judge January indicated his position regarding wife beaters, when he inflicted a fine of $50 and costs upon James Whaley, a negro, for striking and beating his wife, Lucy Whaley, and ordered the fine, unless paid or replenished, to be worked out at hard labor with the ball and chain in accompaniment. Judge January said that no infraction of the minor laws was more to be deplored than the crime of wife beating, that it was demoralizing to society and a disgrace to the community, and that the full penalty of the law would be meted out to all such violators.

In Police Court yesterday morning six offenders were before Judge January. The case against Jim Porter, a negro, for disorderly conduct was continued. James Mastin, on the same charge was assessed fine of $7.50. Henry Gaines, colored, who several days ago was in court on the charge of drunkenness, and who after working out $4 of his fine and was released pending good behavior, was again before his honor on a similar charge. Judge January, in his efforts to curb the incorrigible Gaines stuck on a $17.50 plaster that is intended to keep him sober for a while at least.

Smith Norris, a white man, giving his place of residence at Cynthiana, was arraigned on a charge of drunkenness and was assessed a fine in the sum of $17.50.

The case against James Johnson, a white man, hailing from Millersburg, was continued, and Belle Johnson, a negro woman, was fined $7.50 for being disorderly.

The Interstate.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Sunday has this to say of the Interstate automobile which is handled by the Bourbon Garage Co., of this city:

"One of the most remarkable examples of success in the automobile trade today is the career of the Interstate Automobile Company, of Muncie, Ind."

"Three days after the company was formed by five of the most prominent industrial heads of Indiana negotiations were begun to acquire 20 acres of ground for a factory site. All plans were made and in six weeks from the time of starting an immense structure of brick, steel and glass was receiving finishing touches. Today with the new building added, the total floor space covers over 150,000 square feet and the buildings are of an improved modern construction throughout. Many observers state that the buildings are the best lighted of any in the automobile trade. This plant was the largest automobile factory starting in 1903, and it has been increased five times in the past year and a half, adding new organization equipment and an immense new addition. In the first season of this wonderful plant 500 cars were built and sold, a nucleus was made whereby the 1910 product could be placed on a par with the largest manufacturers in the country."

"For the season of 1910 all the necessary material has been contracted for or purchased to manufacture 2,500 cars. Deliveries began on the 1910 models on November 1, and the factory is now turning them out at the rate of 12 per day. They expect in a short time to have an output up to the maximum amount of 350 per month."

Valuable Diamond Lost in Sewer

Several days ago, while Mrs. B. A. Frank was washing her hand in a stationary washstand at her home on High street, a valuable diamond, which she was wearing became dislodged from its setting and as washed into the sewer.

Upon discovering her loss, she recalled seeing the diamond while washing her hands, and a force of plumbers were called to make a search for the missing gem.

The drain pipes in the house were disconnected in an effort to locate the missing stone, but the search revealed nothing. Then the plumbers went into the yard and after digging up several sections of sewer pipe the diamond was found. A root of a tree growing in the yard had forced its way through a joint of sewer pipe and against this root the object of the search was found.

The diamond, which had been in the family of Mrs. Frank for a number of years, was valued at $300 and being a gift from her mother was highly prized.

The plumber who found the stone and returned it to its owner was the recipient of a handsome present, as a reward for his ardent search.

Callonby Loves His Wife

By KENNETH HARRIS

Mrs. Callonby had been pensively silent for nearly half an hour. Her husband, who was occupied with his papers, was beginning, sub-consciously, to realize that she had been long silent, when she spoke.

She was quite calm about it. There was no tremor in her voice. She spoke deliberately and in accents of conviction.

"James," she said, "you don't love me any more."

Callonby started. "Great Scott! How you scared me!" he exclaimed. "You've been so still I'd forgotten you were in the room. What's that you were saying."

"I said that you didn't love me," repeated Mrs. Callonby, in the same unemotional voice.

"My dear," said Callonby, "I adore you. I'm simply crazy about you."

"You make light of it," said his wife, "but I know perfectly well that you don't. I'm not going to make any fuss about it, but I've been thinking seriously, and I'm convinced that whatever love you had for me is dead."

"I'll put the paper right down and talk to you," said Callonby, contritely. "Tell me what you have been doing to-day. What time did the girl go out? Have they got Miss Broton to promise to teach the kindergarten? Tell me, quick."

"My girlish beauty has faded," said Mrs. Callonby, sadly, disregarding her husband's jocular manner.

"You never notice what I have on or whether it's becoming, or anything."

"Nothing that you wear could be unbecoming," said Callonby. "The worst combination of color that was ever brought together would harmonize if you wore it. Haven't I told you so, often?"

"Yes, if I ask you and pin you down you generally say something foolish," said Mrs. Callonby. "But you aren't really interested. James Callonby, you would notice another woman quick enough."

"Never!" declared Callonby, with emphasis. "All other women are to me as shadows. I have eyes only for you."

"And as soon as you come home you stick your nose into my paper and there's no getting anything out of you for the rest of the evening. I'm not complaining. I suppose it's quite natural and what a woman has to expect, but there was a time when you didn't want to read when you were with me. You really seemed to enjoy my society."

"I should say so!" her husband declared. "But not nearly as much as I enjoy it now. When you sit opposite to me, as you were doing a little while ago, I can't think of anything more delightful. When two people understand each other as we do speech is unnecessary. Our souls commune, as it were, in silence. I know exactly what you would say if you spoke, even while I am reading my paper. I feel your presence and it fills me with inexpressible joy and content."

"Especially if I don't talk."

"My own," said Callonby, "your voice is music to my ear. When I'm away from you I miss it more than you would suppose. Honest, Mag?"

"You don't love me, anyway."

"Didn't I confess my love only a few minutes ago? Don't be unreasonable, darling."

"Do you really?"

"Honest to Moses."

"You're just saying it because I ask you," said Mrs. Callonby. "It's got so that I never know whether you're telling me the truth or not."

"I always tell the truth," Callonby said. "I haven't said a word this evening that wasn't as true as truth itself. Except once," he added. "I told you that you looked well in anything. In a sense that's true, but it did occur to me that your blue evening frock was getting a little tacky the other night. I think that perhaps you'd better get a new one. But, my dear, please don't be harder on me than you can help."

Mrs. Callonby clasped her hands. "Do you mean it, Jim?" she cried, ecstatically. "And a hat to go with it?"

Callonby's face fell a little. "Well, I suppose so," he said.

His wife threw her arms around his neck and kissed him. "You're the dearest, kindest, sweetest thing in all the world," she said. "James, I will take everything back that I said."

"Good!" said Callonby. "Now, are you going to let me read my paper?"

Fences of Ivory.

"Ivory is cheaper to-day than it ever was. More ivory is being imported than ever. It isn't true that we are in danger of exhausting our supply."

The speaker, an ivory dealer, patted a tusk as big as a girl of 14.

"This tusk," he said, "is from an ivory palisade about an African king's palace. In the interior of Africa there are innumerable kings and chiefs whose palisades are of ivory. For consider—since the world began there have been tusks and these tusks for centuries have been preserved by native potentates. It will be long enough before we exhaust that supply."

"The price of ivory? Well, I'll give you $4 a pound for the best tusk, suitable for billiard balls. That is 40 per cent lower than the price was ten years ago—and what better proof is there than that of the abundance of the supply?"

The ideal carriage horse is the American trotting bred horse, with size, speed, courage, and the true trotting gait, with plenty of knee and hock action. In addition he must have a clean cut head and neck, style and finish, plenty of substance without coarseness.

Recognizing the demand for this class of horses, I selected Taylor Simmons 23489, a young horse which fills all the requirements of the typical carriage horse. If the theory that "like begets like" be true, he will produce horses of this type when mated with good mares. Through his veins flow the blood of the greatest trotting families. He traces twice to George Wilkes and five times to Mambrino Chief II. This is backed by the stout thoroughbred blood of Boston.

Free Remedy For Weak Bowels

There are two forms of bodily cleanliness, the external and the internal. The one is for your pride in yourself; the other for your life and health. Both are important, but of vastly more importance in the long run is the internal cleanliness.

This is one point that all should watch about their body—the cleanliness of the bowels. Keep them clean and free from obstructions. To do this you must have one or two movements of the bowels each twenty-four hours. If your system does not do this naturally, in the process of eating and drinking, then you must obtain aid of some kind. After finding out that cathartics, salts and such things relieve you for a day, but blind you up worse than ever the next day, then try a simpler and more natural remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

For the skeptical the best way to begin is to send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell for a free sample bottle. Use it as directed and if it convinces you that a brief continuance of its use will relieve you permanently—that it will train the stomach and bowel muscles to again work naturally at certain hours—then buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as so many others are doing. They began with a sample bottle, then bought a fifty cent bottle, and now, fully convinced of its merits, they buy the one dollar family size. All the members of the family can use it down to the very youngest.

A brief use of this grand laxative tonic will cure constipation in its worst form. Indigestion, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach and such ailments and keep you in continuous good health at a very small cost. Such is the experience of many families like that of Mrs. Oscar Fleener, Unionville, Ind. J. F. Daniel, Saron, Tex., and hundreds of others that could be named.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Little Chance for Shelby in Pool.

From present indications there will be very little, if any of the 1910 crop of tobacco grown in Shelby county entered in the pool.

More than two weeks ago the pledges for the coming crop were sent from headquarters to the Board of Control, with instructions to employ canvassers to secure the largest possible acreage, but thus far not a man has been put in the field, nor a single contract signed.

The attitude of the Shelby board, as well as of the individual growers, who have hitherto been loyal to the Burley Tobacco Society, is that they are tired of pulling the chestnuts out of the fire for the benefit of those outside the pool. A tremendous crop was grown in Shelby county last year. Practically all the independent tobacco has been marketed at big prices, but the pooled tobacco, which represents about fifty per cent of the whole, is still in the growers' hands or stored in warehouses, with no definite prospect of a sale in the immediate future.

The leaders in the society have no hesitation in declaring that it is now up to the independents to make the first move. If a sufficient number of them indicate their willingness to pool, they will join in heartily, but the society does not propose to take the initiative.

Courtesy in Young Girls.

Young girls are apt to be somewhat thoughtlessly discourteous, and are quite oblivious of the irremediable evil often wrought by want of thought. Such girls should bear in mind the lesson in courtesy given by a father to his daughter. "My child," said he, "treat everybody with politeness, even though they are rude to you. For, remember that you show courtesy to others, not because they are ladies, but because you are one."—Home Notes.

Shall Women Vote?

If they did, millions would vote Dr. King's New Life Pills the true remedy for women. For banishing dull, fagged feelings, backache or headache, constipation, dispelling colds, imparting appetite and turning up the system they're unequalled. Easy, safe, sure. 25c at Obermeyer's.

Iron.

Pure iron is only a laboratory preparation. Cast iron, the most generally useful variety, contains about five per cent. of impurities, and the curious thing is that it owes its special value to the presence of these. Pure iron can be shaved with a pocket knife; impure iron can be made almost as hard as steel.

The Trust Program.

The Christian Science Monitor of Boston quotes George W. Perkins, partner of J. P. Morgan, as saying at Harvard University: "Great corporations would not be a menace, but a great public benefit if managed under laws that would compel proper publicity and punish officers for improper methods." "How can this be done?" he asks and answers that it is only attainable through national control, adding: "State control is impossible because steam and electricity have largely wiped out State lines in commercial undertakings."

This is the trust program: center everything at Washington. Take the control off corporations out of the hands of the states and then wait for Congress to act. If the trusts can control the president, the senate or the house—any one of the three—they can prevent regulation. They have for more than fifteen years prevented the reformation of the senate because they can control the Senate now more easily than they could if senators were elected by popular vote. It is difficult enough to regulate "great corporations" when both the state and the federal governments are given exclusive control. Every democrat will oppose the scheme—the fact that it is advanced by trust magnates is conclusive proof that it is antagonistic to the interests of the public. The democratic position is that federal remedies should be added to, not substituted for state remedies.

Bamboo.

It is possible that the world's future supply of paper pulp will be derived from the bamboo forests of the tropics instead of being drawn from the forests of the temperate zones. Successful experiments have been made in Japan pointing in that direction. A company has obtained a perpetual lease of 3,000 acres of bamboo forest in Formosa, enough to provide 600 tons a month.

Just the Thing.

"Some of these farmers don't know how to handle their properties." "Think not?" "I know it. Half these abandoned farms furnish ideal surroundings for golf links."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Barr Acquitted.

At Carlisle the jury in the case of Robert Barr, Jr., charged with complicity in the assassination of Hiram Hedges, brought in a verdict of not guilty at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, thus ending one of the most sensational trials ever held in that county. The accused was promptly released from custody and was warmly congratulated by his relatives and friends.

Argument in the case was concluded Thursday night about 9:30 o'clock, but the jury did not begin its deliberations until Friday morning. After six hours the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal.

It is stated that there was no developments at the trial to cause the arrest of any other person in conjunction with the crime. The consensus of opinion is that Barr was never implicated in the assassination, as one of the band of night riders, that his identification by members of the Hedges family is regarded as a case of mistaken identity.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG,
SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good."

It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures. If you want a book that tells all about women's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FRIDAY'S GAME.

Fifteen hundred people gathered at White Park Friday afternoon to witness the opening game on the local grounds between the Lexington and Paris clubs. The game was slow and uninteresting, and by heavy hitting the Colts won out in the end by a score of 10 to 8.

Doyle essayed to pitch for the visitors but in the first inning after walking three men and allowing the Bourbonites three hits which put four runs over the rubber, was relieved by Ashby who officiated for six innings and was relieved by Stultz.

The Colts used up three twirlers for the locals. Winchell went in and held the visitors for three innings, but in the fourth the Colts pounded him heavily and when with one man out Poole was sent in after three men had scored. Poole was very effective until the seventh, when a costly error and the timely hitting of the visitors, five runs were made and Scheneberg was called to finish the game.

In the fourth inning Manager Yancy protested the game when Moran threw wild to first allowing two men to score. In the eighth, with Scott on first, Barnett was walked, Moran letting the fourth bad one get away and both men taking two bases. Umpire Laughton called them back to first and second, respectively, causing a long drawn-out argument and a protest of the game by Manager McKernan. Following is the score:

SUNDAY'S GAME.

With McCormick on the mound pitching superb ball and the support of every member of the Paris aggregation, the Bourbonites administered a coat of whitewash to the husky Pioneers Sunday afternoon in one of the prettiest exhibitions of ball playing ever witnessed on the local grounds.

McCormick had complete control and held the visitors with two hits. Not a single one of the Pioneers who faced him drew a pass and but one went to first on being hit by a pitched ball. In addition to his masterly pitching McCormick fielded his position, which was difficult, perfectly so effective was he that not one of his opponents got beyond the second sack, landed out a two-bagger in the fifth and scored the only run in the contest.

Wills, for the visitors pitched a steady game, allowing only five hits, while the work of his team-mates was around the perfect order.

The winning run which gave to Paris her first victory of the season came in the fifth. Sperber fanned the wind and McCormick coming to the bat landed a beauty in left center which counted for two bases. Kuhlman hit a grounder to second and went out, Baird to Sandman, Goodman was next up and drove a long one over first and down the right field foul line to the fence, making third on the hit and scoring McCormick. Kaiser popped a fly to Kline, retiring the side.

The visitors never looked dangerous. In the ninth inning the heavy end of the batting list was up but the locals retired them in one two three order. The features were the pitching of McCormick and the clever outfield work of the visitors. The score followed:

Earned runs—Paris, 1. Three base hits—Goodman. Two base hits—Mc-Cormick. Struck out—by McCormick 4; Wills 5. Base on balls—off Wills 4. Hit by pitcher—Baird. Wild Pitch—Wills. Errors—Paris 2; Richmond 1. Umpire Laughton. Time—1:40.

YESTERDAY'S GAME.

The Paris club went to Shelbyville yesterday and defeated the Millers by a score of 13 to 4. Maxwell was on the mound for the Bourbonites while Holder did the backstopping.

NOTES.

Going some! Five hundred per cent better off than we were at the same time last year and five more games to go on.

Not more than four men faced McCormick in any one inning and in five sessions they were retired in the one, two, three order.

Pitcher McCormick is the recipient of a beautiful shirt, the gift of Price & Co., clothiers, for his excellent performance in Sunday's game, and in pitching the Bourbonites to the first victory.

Outfielder Sperber's career as a Bourbonite was cut short on Sunday night when he was released by Manager McKernan. Sperber came from the Queen City and covered a great amount of territory in the left garden, but his failure to connect with the ball was responsible for his release. Hits are what it takes to win the game and McKernan is looking for an outfielder who can wield the stick effectively.

"Daddy" Whitaker is the same jolly old fellow he was a season ago, and the Paris fans have a great admiration for the Pioneer outfielder.

Dunlap played in the right garden just like he was never used to any other position. He is handy at the bat and gives promise of being one of our leading batsmen.

Kaiser had five chances and accepted four of them. In the seventh he misjudged a pop-up from Sandman's bat and allowed the runner to gain first safely, but he was caught a moment later while trying to steal second.

Holding the slugging Pioneers down with two safeties is something of an achievement. Last Friday, Toney, of Winchester, held them down to three, but with McCormick in the proper condition he looks better than the big Hustler twirler.

In the sixth inning McKernan made a fine running catch of a high fly from Wills' bat. McKernan ran from his position on second beyond first to the right field foul-line and caught the ball with ease.

Goodman and McCormick were the stars of the game. Besides doing excellent battery work, their hitting was responsible for the run that cost the Pioneers the game.

Scott covered the short position, accepted two chances and made one of the five hits. Kuhlman at third accepted four out of five chances. At the bat he drew two passes and grounded out twice. He is a good waiter and the batting order is well headed.

Pitcher Sim McElfresh has been given his release by Manager McKernan.

Catcher Thomas and outfielder McGee, two new recruits, arrived in this city yesterday morning and reported to President Bacon. The men were out yesterday afternoon for a few hours practice.

Today Paris will meet the Millers in the second game of the series, Wednesday and Thursday they will play at Richmond and will return here on Friday for a tilt with the Pioneers. Saturday they will invade the Hustler camp and on Sunday will be a home for a game with the latter.

Dwelling Burned.

Fire at 9 o'clock last night destroyed a frame dwelling on Judy's Alley, the property of Jim Arnold, colored. The fire department confined the flames to this building saving surrounding property from destruction. Loss about $400 with no insurance.

Negro Killed by Train.

The body of John Ingles, colored, was found lying on the track of the Louisville and Nashville railroad a short distance from Kiserston early Saturday morning, and it is thought that he was killed while trying to ride back to his home in Cynthiana on the midnight freight train Friday. Close by him it is said, we found several quarts of whiskey and it is thought that he had been "bootlegging" at Paris. A most unusual feature of Ingles' death was that his brother, Henry Ingles, met his death in the same way within five hundred feet of the same spot a short time ago after an alleged "bootlegging" expedition and a quart of whiskey as found on his body.

PUBLIC SALE

Fine Bourbon Stock and Tobacco Farm.

As heirs of the late Mrs. Sallie E. Moore we will sell on the premises, 3 1/2 miles from Paris on the Paris & Cynthiana turnpike, on Thursday, May 26th, 1910, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., and without reserve, her farm of 360 acres of land.

The farm is without question one of the best improved tracts of land in the Blue Grass region, and is in a high state of cultivation.

It has been in the same family for one hundred years and each generation has taken great care in preserving the fertility of the land.

It has upon it one of the best two-story modern brick residence in the county, containing eleven rooms, halls, 10 closets, 1 store room, a double front veranda, with elegant bay window, between, double back porches and with cellar under main portion of the building.

The house contains a slate roof, has been newly painted and is in splendid condition, inside and out. There is a large eastern near the rear door, and one of the best ice houses in the State.

There is also on the premises a meat house; brick cabin in the yard; stable; tobacco barn for 10 acres of tobacco and a good tenant house of five rooms.

The farm is one of the best fenced tracts of land in the country, is very productive and is, all in grass except 110 acres. It is well watered, Cooper's Run flowing through one corner of the place, while a number of never failing spring and pools make the farm drought proof.

The land lays well, being sufficiently rolling to afford natural drainage, and is of rich productive soil. A field of 50 acres of corn last year has now upon it a fine crop of growing wheat, which is sown to clover, the latter being up nicely. Sixty acres is to be planted in corn and can be seeded to wheat in the fall of 1910. The farm is surrounded on all sides by citizens who own their farms, Col. E. F. Clay, the owner of Runymede, and his son, Mr. E. F. Clay, Jr., being on the South side. Mr. George Wagner on the west, the late of Miss Elizabeth Grimes and Mrs. R. C. Talbott on the north and bounded by Stoner creek on the east.

The residence and surroundings are among the most attractive on the Paris and Cynthiana pike, the former being located 75 yards from the road and approached with a beautiful heart shaped driveway.

The yard comprises several acres of land well set in blue grass and shaded with cedars, maple, walnut, and several stately oak and ash trees.

The line of the Cynthiana and Paris Interurban railway, which has been surveyed and will be built within the next twelve months, runs directly in front of the premises and will afford quick transportation in either direction.

The farm will be sold in two tracts the home place (going in the direction from Paris to Cynthiana) containing 235 acres, and including the improvements and the rental contract for the year 1910, will compose tract No. 1; and the unimproved land, lying immediately across the pike and containing 125 acres, will compose tract No. 2.

Tract No. 2 is one of the richest bodies of land in central Kentucky. It is a deep virgin soil, and contains one hundred acres of fine timber and is richly set in blue grass. The timber consists of mammoth red and white oak, blue and black ash, maple and walnut trees and is of such a variety and abundance as to be sufficient to build a number of tobacco barns. This tract of land has upon it an elegant and commanding site for a residence every acre of the one hundred twenty-five will produce several fine crops of tobacco, after which it would produce the finest corn and wheat that could be grown.

Prospective buyers are invited to visit and inspect unequalled opportunities as a stock and agricultural farm.

The farm will first be sold as a whole, including the rental contract for the year 1910, and possession given March 1, 1911.

It will then be sold in separate tracts, and the highest and best bid will be accepted.

If sold separately, purchaser of tract No. 2 can have immediate possession.

The terms of the sale will be liberal and made known on day of sale.
